In addition to the provisions of the Open Meetings Law, R.S. 42:11 et seq., the additional publishing requirements of Article 7, Section 23(C) of the Louisiana Constitution and R.S. 47:1705(B) regarding increases in the millage rates have been complied with. These requirements include, but are not limited to the following:

1. Public notice of the date, time, place, and subject matter of the public hearing was published on two separate days no less than thirty days before the public hearing in the official journal of the taxing authority; and, if applicable, in another newspaper with a larger circulation within the taxing authority than the official journal;
2. The publications are at least 2 columns by four inches in size; and, are formatted in a box with a bolded outline and bold face type;
3. The publications contain the required statement "that the tax recipient body intends to consider levying additional or increased millage rates without further voter approval";
4. The publications contained an estimate of the amount of tax revenues to be collected in the next tax year from the increased millage as compared to the amount of tax revenue for the current year;
5. The publications also contained the amount of increase in taxes attributable to the millage increase;

6. On the first day of publication, the notice was posted on the Internet website, if the taxing authority maintains an Internet website; and remained active until the taxing authority took action to approve or disapprove or abandon action on the proposed millage increase;
7. For purposes of the internet publication only, the notice contained a recitation of the current budget of the taxing authority.
8. Publications were published in a prominent place in the newspaper in a section other than the classified advertisements or the public notice section.
9. The assessor was provided notice of the date, time and place of the pending hearing;
10. A press release was issued to newspapers with substantial distribution within the jurisdiction of the taxing district; and to area broadcast media;
11. The public hearing was held in accordance with the open meetings law;
12. If the advertised public hearing was cancelled or postponed or was considered at the public hearing without action or vote, then, all of the notice requirements of R. S. 47:1705(B) for future public hearings to consider such proposal to increase millage rates were advertised and publicized;
13. Two separate ordinances or resolutions were adopted; and
14. Two-thirds of the total membership of the taxing authority voted in favor of the second ordinance or resolution to increase the millage.

Copies of all required notices and agenda are attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
